Re-accreditation of the Museum

The History Trust of South Australia has formally notified us that the Museum has been Re-Accredited in the Museums and Collections (MaC) program. While around 100 S.A. museums are registered in the program, this continues our place as one of eight accredited.

Accredited MaC museums undertake a formal review every five years, using the National Standards for Australian Museums and Galleries (NSAMG).

Heritage on Sunday – April – Let's Celebrate

We celebrated many anniversaries occurring this year – starting with 170 years for the Museum building itself, initially the Highercombe Hotel. The Gully Public House and Garden is also 170.

The Garford fire engine, restored and owned by Graeme Drewett, was present for its centenary and was a favourite of the children.

Other anniversaries included: Cadbury (200), Penfolds (180), Royal Albert China (120), Charlesworth Nuts (90), Arnott's Biscuits Family Assorted (100), Stobie Poles (100), Kellogg's Corn Flakes (130), S Kidman & Co (125), Drakes Supermarkets (50), Anchor Foods (170), Lucy Maud Montgomery (150 - 'Anne of Green Gables' author), 'Dot and the Kangaroo' (125), etc.

Thanks to Bickford's, visitors were able to try a free sample of their special flavours created or re-introduced to celebrate their 150th year.

The Adelaide Hills Motor Restorers ran several stationary engines outside the blacksmith shop.

Members of the Victoria Society of SA joined the celebrations.
